

I am against changing the Indianatelephone Privacy Law. I do not want corporations or companies, with whom I do business with calling me on my home phone to solícite business or advertise. I find this is an invasion of my privacy. Alice E. Poseley